Section 2: The Teaching Experience

2. What was good about this placement?

Varied activities and timetable Excellent organisation of activities Friendly staff

Well organised, good teaching, well structured timetable, approachable doctors, friendly team.

3. What did you find useful about this teaching?

Great supervision on clinics.

we were able to choose what teaching we wanted, e.g. osce's or certain topics.

4. Was there something you thought should be changed to improve it? If so, what would you suggest.

session observing patients in the waiting room and a day with the reception were not helpful in terms of final year objectives

Sessions observing and participating in reception duties where perhaps surplus to requirements in terms of final year objectives

5. Can you give any examples of good practice in teaching?

Clear supervision when seeing own patients. All doctors keen to answer questions. Small group tutorials with doctors practising examination skills.

in osce teaching our examination techniques were observed and critiqued. we were subsequently given constructive feedback which was extremely helpful.
