Section 2: The Teaching Experience

2. What was good about this placement?

- Very friendly practice staff - Well planned timetable which included home visits, patient's being brought into the practice and teaching - Doctors were keen for us to learn and gave us opportunities to clerk and examine patients - Mental health teaching was very good (Dr Siddiqui)

Friendly practise - a good advert for life in primary care! Doctors universally helpful with teaching and discussing cases.

3. Was there something you thought should be changed to improve it? If so, What would you suggest.

Teaching session on neuro examinations would be helpful if possible

4. Can you give any examples of good practice in teaching?

- Dr Gangahar involved me in taking the history, examination and management for patients which was a good learning experience - Dr Siddiqui used SAQs to teach us mental health pharmacology which I found very useful
